Carolyn Katz, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Katz, 68 Phillips St., a senior at Phillips Academy has won a National Merit $1000 Scholarship. Carolyn was awarded the one-time scholarship award through her distinguished performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying examination and this year's Scholastic Aptitude Tests, and through high academic performance.

First Graders Honor Principal Of Year

By Linda S. Corbett

Lois Haslam was literally engulfed by love Tuesday, and the feeling was mutual.

The Doherty School principal was honored by her first graders at "punch and cookies", after being named statewide "Principal of the Year."

The title will be officially bestowed on her tomorrow at a meeting of the Massachusetts Elementary School Principals' Association in Hyannis. She was chosen by a committee from Fitchburg State Teachers College, and by a group of her peers throughout the state, for the first Thomas C. Passios Award "for professional leadership in education." (Passios was a long-time principal in Massachusetts, who later was with the State Department of Education.)

But Tuesday, the awards were crafted by little hands and the praise pure six-year-old.

Individual cards and medals crayoned by many of the 57 first graders sported such messages as, "I'm glad you won" (or "wun" or "one," depending on the writer), "I'm proud of you," "Fantastic," or just plain, "I love you."

In return, Mrs. Haslam told them, "when you have the best superintendent and the best teachers and the best children, you never get an award all by yourself."

She got even bigger rating with the young admirers, all decked out in their best dress-up clothes for the occasion, when she told them there would be no homework for the night, and that they could have an extra recess.

Young Nathan Male was emcee, and Mrs. Haslam was also presented with a book of quotes from the students on what each would do "If I were principal of Doherty."

Some would let the children chew gum, put air conditioning in all year, have nap time in case anyone gets tired, have longer recess, let the children be the

Her Principal Concern

It's hard to tell who is more pleased by the selection of Doherty School Principal Lois Haslam as statewide Principal Of The Year, as both the honored educator and her first graders had a "punch and cookies" party Tuesday afternoon.

A policy statement by selectmen asking a reduced school department budget has driven the school committee right through its tax cap.

Monday night selectmen issued their statement asking the school committee to reduce their budget to the proposed four per cent tax cap.

Tuesday night the school committee told the selectmen to mind their own business.

Selectmen in issuing the statement said that the town government budget had been held to the four per cent level as contained in the tax cap legislation now awaiting Gov. King's action.

In the letter to School Board Chairman Elaine F. Viehmann, the selectmen said, "In the opinion of the board of selectmen, every effort must be made by the school committee to meet the 104 per cent limitation in order to keep the new tax rate as low as possible in a time of increasing monetary instability and public demands for tax relief."

The policy was agreed to by the board amid comments by Selectman Susan T. Poore that, "if anything it's discipline that is required here." Selectman James Abramson said "They can say it's none of our business how they spend it, but it's our responsibility as elected officials to say they should keep the budget down."

57 Percent Better Than None

The Commissioner of Transportation has notified the school department that Andover will be reimbursed for 57.34 percent of last year's costs of busing youngsters who live more than a mile and a half from school.

School Chairman Elaine

Viehmann said Tuesday night she was "reasonably encouraged" by the action.

While the original law says the state will pay 100 percent, she said the previous year's reimbursement was down to 62 percent, and she feared it would disappear entirely.

Deny Request For Parent Addresses

An Andover Education request for a copy of a mailing list of families, so they could send letters encouraging parents to attend town meeting — and at the same time express their support of the school committee's 8.2 percent budget — was turned down by the committee

Tuesday night.

While appreciating the teachers' backing, Committeeman Joseph Finn said he felt the request "smells strongly of politics."

The school committee has to give its approval for such parent information to be released.

Wetlands Maps Are Available

Wetlands maps for most of Andover west of route 93 are completed and are available for use in the offices of the department of community development and planning in the Theater building on Essex Street.

Maps are also available for the land east and west of Jenkins Road.

Anyone interested in seeking the wetland map for their area can make an appointment between 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday.

As maps for other areas of the town arrived, notice will be published.

Selectmen Reduce Schedule

Selectmen will meet only three times per month on a regular basis starting after town meeting.

The three to two vote Monday night with chairman Edward M. Harris and selectman Susan T. Poore voting in the negative, suspended the rule which calls for conference sessions on the first and third Mondays of the month.

Selectmen will now hold conference sessions regularly on just the first Monday of the month. Regular meetings will still be held on the second and fourth Mondays.

This change, brought about at the suggestion of Selectman James Abramson, will be in effect on a trial basis until November.

Water Main Extension Approved

Selectmen voted Monday night to allow the extension of water mains under Baily Road and Pleasant Street at the expense of the owner of the Far Corners development in West Andover.

William Constantinopolis, the owner, will pay for the installation of the 1550 feet of 12-inch water main along Baily Road and the 830-feet of 8 inch main along Pleasant Street.

The installation would have to be approved by the DPW, and the town would then post a bond for the work at a value determined by DPW director Robert McQuade.

Official Parking Regulated

Use of the town official parking permits is now subject to a set of specific rules.

The new rules, approved Monday night by the board of selectmen, limit when and where the official permits can be used without penalty.

Bikes At Recycling Auction

Multi-speed bikes will once again be on the Auction block at the Recycling Auction on Saturday, May 5, 10 a.m.-2 p.m. at the auction's new location, Cardinal Cushing Gym on Haverhill St. (Rt. 113). There will be 30 bikes: 3 speeds, 5 speeds, 10 speeds 20", 26"; made by Schwinn, Ross, Columbia, Raleigh and Sears. These used bikes have been an annual feature at the Auction; a chance to find a real "buy"!

Many donated items also wait to be recycled: a folding, full sized cot; sink; wooden storm windows in good condition; headboard and frame; stereo; swing set; chairs; to name a few. All proceeds benefit the Town of Andover.

The recycling auction provides an opportunity to dispose of your unwanted valuables. An item valued over $20 may be auctioned on consignment whereby you receive 75% of the sale price and 25% goes to the town.

Individuals, groups, or organizations are welcome to rent flea market space for a modest fee to participate in this aspect of the Auction. This year apple-head dolls, silver jewelry, and Janvier L. Miller's prints will be featured.

Free pick-up service of large donations will be arranged by calling 475-5864. Or, bring used but unwanted items to the Cardinal Cushing Gym on May 2, 3, or 4 from 5-7 p.m. when Recycling Committee members will receive them.

For flea market reservations or further information, call the Recycling Committee at 475-8220.

Food available — coffee and donuts to hot dogs and coke.

Audubon Walk

Massachusetts Audubon Society's Ipswich River Wildlife Sanctuary on Perkins Row in Topsfield invites the public to join them in welcoming a harbinger of spring — the woodcock.

We'll observe the activity and mating flight on May 2 at 7:15 p.m. There is no charge.

Genealogists Plan Session

The Essex County Chapter of the Massachusetts Society of Genealogists will meet Saturday, April 28 at 1 p.m. at the Lynn Public Library, North Common Street, Lynn. At 1 p.m., Phyllis Blodgett, cataloger at the library, will describe the genealogical resources of the library. Ludovine Hamilton and Kay Little, former librarians, will lend assistance to members as they tour the closed stock area.

Plans are being made for members only to meet on Saturday, June 16, at the New England Historical Genealogical Society, Boston. Reservations for this must be made by May 19 by calling Marcia Wiswall at the Lynnfield Library or Earle C. Hazelwood, Jr. of Boxford.

Bancroft Supports New East

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

I wish to inform you that the Bancroft PTO board firmly supports the proposal to build a new East Junior High on the present site.

It is fair to say that at the time of the original request for additional information the Bancroft Board was skeptical to say the least. But with a little research on our part and adequate information from the Building Committee we reached the conclusion that a new East Junior High was clearly the best alternative. Our reasons can be simply stated as follows:

1. It provides a better educational facility for the children. It would last 4-10 times longer than any repair of East.
2. Based on its useful life it is less expensive to the town.
3. The cost comparison sheet provided by the building committee shows that Andover's share for new construction would be 2.9 million versus 2.7 for basic repairs.
4. The proposed education specifications (really building specifications) are not extravagant but adequate. In fact they are quite modest in some respects.
5. The building will cost less to operate.
6. The heating plant which serves Doherty, Stowe and East will also be replaced.
7. Safety of the children will be enhanced and increased.
8. Double sessions will not be necessary.

It is important to recognize that the professional educators in Andover officially and socially have endorsed the new East Junior High. As former skeptics we strongly urge you to vote for the new East Junior High. The remaining skeptics should ask themselves the following question: how is it the 90% of those who have taken the time to investigate the new East Junior High proposal come to the same conclusion — a new Junior High at East.

See you at Town Meeting, May 7.

Ron Gomes
PTO Board President
Bancroft School

Thanks!

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

On behalf of the entire Andover Hockey Association, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you and your staff for the coverage the Townsman has given hockey this past year.

Hundreds of young boys and girls have become more and more involved in all youth athletic programs throughout the town the past few years. With this increase in participation on all age levels, it requires not only many hours of practice from our youth but also many long hours from parents who help manage and support these activities.

There are many ways in which these young team members can realize a sense of accomplishment, whether it is an outstanding individual or team performance, whether its winning a tournament or regular season game, or whether it is just the opportunity to be a participating member of a team striving for a goal. Consequently, when these accomplishments make the local newsmedia, our young athletes again can be reassured that their hard work is appreciated not only by their peers and parents but also by the entire town of Andover.

The most appropriate vehicle for spreading the results of these activities is unquestionably the media. Therefore, when one looks through the Townsman week in and week out, the extensive coverage youth activities receives is very gratifying.

Again, the A.H.A. wants to thank you on behalf of not only hockey, but all sports, for the support you provide the athletic programs in Andover.

Warriorettes On Rampage

The Andover High School softball team opened its schedule versus Dracut on a cold, blustery day last week at Recreation Park. The chill soon left as the Warriors scorched the basepaths for twelve runs on the way to a 12-4 rout of the Middies.

The Warriors managed only five hits to go along with six walks and ten Dracut errors.

Andover had five different girls, each getting a hit while Judy Girard, Maureen McDonald and Paula Caplan all scored two runs. Lisa Debroyckere drove in two runs for the Warriors.

Defensively the Warriors were led by Judy Girard, Susie Earnshaw and Lisa Debroyckere in the infield and Maureen McDonald in the outfield.

On Thursday, the Warriors showed that they are to be contenders to be reckoned with as they overcame a 2-0 deficit to tie the game in the fifth before winning it in the eighth.

Methuen scored one in the first as Diane Arcidicano singled, stole second and scored on Debbie Breeley's single. They scored another in the third as Janice Wadsworth reached on a fielder's choice, went to third on Arcidicano's single and scored on Kathy Szostaks fly to center-field.

Andover scored two in the fifth as Diane Fabiani walked, stole second; Judy Girard walked and both moved up on a bunt. Linda Griggs then singled home both runners.

The Methuen sixth almost proved to be a disaster as Nancy Szostak singled, stole second and then was thrown out on third on head up plays by Judy Girard and Lisa Debroyckere. Nancy MacLeod hit a shot off Debroyckere's glove which was played by Girard who fired to third with Debroyckere putting the tag on a sliding Szostak. She then saw the runner heading for second and fired the ball to Susan Earnshaw for the final out.

Andover won the game in the eighth as Griggs walked, stole second and scored on Maureen McDonald's single. Kaplan walked, Jasmin walked and Peg Alexander walked forcing in a run. After Judy Gerard reached on a fielder's choice Susan Earnshaw doubled cleaning the bases.

Defensively Andover saw Paula Kaplan make some outstanding catches in left field.

The Warriorettes were playing at home versus Lawrence at press time.

League Openers Saturday

The Major and Minor League Divisions of the Andover Little League will open their 1979 season on Saturday, April 28.

Refreshments will be on sale throughout the day along with tickets to the Little League sponsored Las Vegas Nite scheduled for May 11, at the Andover Country Club.

School Board Given Budget Cut Guidance

Armed with input from this week's three-hour public hearing, the school committee Tuesday night will decide what areas it would cut, should town meeting limit them to less than their recommended 8.2 percent budget.

Chairman Elaine Viehmann invited the 200-plus residents who turned out at West Jr. High to "come and watch" them make the final decisions, but warned that they would not have another opportunity to speak up for particular programs.

Committeeman Joseph Finn said the whole point of this week's hearing and next week's decision is to tell town meeting what they'll be losing if they're confined to a 4 percent tax cap.

Fewer residents than expected actually took the floor Tuesday, except for such areas as the music program, athletics and extra-curricular activities, and a few others.

Many, by their silence, seemed to favor the possible cuts — an optimistic sign for proponents of the tax cap — while others encouraged the committee to go forward to town meeting with their recommended 8.2 percent budget.

Cuts totalling about about $470,000 would bring the proposed budget down to four percent, and the list present Tuesday night totalled nearly twice that.

While quick to note that the did not favor any cuts from the recommended budget, Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert said he was told to come up with areas for possible cuts, and list them in priority order.

Transportation, often an emotional issue, caused little stir, Tuesday night, despite a possible cut-back to the state's two-mile limit, and a savings of $113,000. Mrs. Viehmann noted that youngsters within any new boundaries would still be bused in cases of "extreme hazard," such as exists in the North Main Street area of I-495.

Traditional school busing, on an earlier list of possible cuts, would be retained. Finn noted that since the traditional alternative is a regular part of the school program, the town must provide busing.

The first category to draw support for the keeping, was equipment.

Cuts would interfere with a replacement schedule which calls for such items as copy machines, snow blowers, projection screens, lawn mowers, desks and chairs.

Rebecca Harris of 2 Forest Road, drew applause with her comment that they should not let equipment run down and materials disappear, and Pam Kvilekval, pupil personnel administrator (Chapter 766) said there are special needs youngsters coming up who will be needing special equipment for serious hearing and vision problems and the like.

Committeeman Casimir Kolaski said he felt this would be a "foolish cut," and noted that they'd learned some "very painful lessons about what happens when we don't maintain buildings."

Peg Calderwood of West Elementary School said "it would be sad" to lose a music program advisor — a position vacant since the retirement last year of Edward Grigoli. There is, she said, "a great need" for coordination in that area.

Asst. Supt. Charles Mitsakos defended the New Emphasis program, which funds such innovations as last fall's study skills workshops for parents and students, and the oral history and elderly projects.

He said that the budget had already been reduced from $35,000 to $20,000, and this would reduce it by another $5,000.

Kolaski said there are a lot of capable, creative people in the system, and that the New Emphasis gives them an outlet for their talents. "It's our hope that as people do have ideas, this will give them an opportunity to get minimal resources," he said.

Committeeman John Eaton drew applause when he said he was "definitely opposed" to cutting the extra-curricular program, which now involves more than 400 junior high and 485 high school students in such activities as debating, student council, math league, dramatics, newspaper and year book.

Richard Benson stood up for maintaining the athletic program, particularly hockey, but included non-athletic extra activities as well.

"If you don't fill the void with something, he said, "a lot of taxpayer money will be going to the results of juvenile delinquency."

He said he couldn't see why all sports weren't reduced across the board, instead of there being a "select circle" of sports that were untouched.

"Why pick and choose arbitrarily?" he asked.

Benson noted that Andover had won the Dalton Award this year for overall excellence in athletics, and that eliminating any of the sports would be doing away with an opportunity for such recognition in the future.

Athletic Director Richard Swift agreed that $115,000 "tears the hell out of the athletic program. But, he said, he was told to make cuts and his priority was the physical education, adaptive phys ed and intra-mural programs.

He said he looked into the junior high areas first for cuts, and had tried to maintain a balance of girls and boys programs at the high school.

"Am I for this?" he asked. "Absolutely not."

Roberta Cole, 12 Russet Lane, said she couldn't see why any varsity sport, namely hockey, would be cut. She said it would eliminate an opportunity for some youths to get college scholarships for that particular sport.

Michael Anderson, co-captain of the high school hockey team this year, added that it was "a stepping stone for my future," and Ralph Luby of Wintergreen Circle asked the committee to look at college applications. The colleges are very concerned about what the youngsters do above and beyond academics, he said.

On the subject of reduction of aide hours, Maureen Wrobel, 8 Eastman Road, noted that aide hours are vital to the contemporary program. "We just can't do without the aides," she said.

Lee Smith of Pine Street was the first to take the microphone in favor of keeping the elementary instrumental music program. Presently, 438 pupils — or about on a third of students in grades four to six — take lessons in woodwinds, brass, percussion and strings. Some 310 of these play in their school bands.

Mrs. Smith said that the string program

Budget

is now 125 strong and growing, and that she didn't feel there was a private alternative to this program. Even if they could afford $10 an hour for private lessons, she said, the pupils wouldn't be getting to play in a group. She said the cost of the program to the town is $75 per student, but that the program "returns much more."

Harriet Ahouse of High Plain Road said she would like to see more rational cuts from the school budget, and proposed the closing of an elementary school.

Why maintain an elementary school with a low pupil-teacher ratio and administrative costs, she asked, when the town could save at least $200,000 a year.

"I think it can be done this September," she said, "and I would like to see you address it publicly."

Mrs. Viehmann said it was obvious that they would be closing an elementary school, probably within the next couple of years, and that they were beginning the consideration. However, she said, "if we close one now, it would probably be too early."

She added that closing a school also wasn't something they could decide this week for next year's budget.

Tax Cap

Responding to the formal letter asking them to make every effort to get their budget down to the 4 percent tax cap level, School Committeeman Joseph Finn said he respects and appreciates the opinions of each member of the board of selectmen — particularly if they want to express themselves as individual members of the community.

However, he felt they were, "overstepping their bounds" in making the latest request.

"If not in direct violation of the town charter," he said their action was a violation "at least in spirit."

"If we sent such a request to the selectmen," he went on, "they wouldn't pay any attention either."

The Board of Selectmen has decided that the town side of the budget is going to be four percent, he continued, but the school committee "to this point" has recommended a higher figure, 8.2 percent and will leave the choice up to town meeting.

The school committee prefers to leave the choice up to town meeting, he said,

"because a lot of items would have to be cut."

And, he added, that's why we're here tonight.

Colleague Casimir Kolaski "echoed" Finn's sentiments and called the selectmen letter "totally out of place."

He said the school committee has tried very hard — the last two years anyway — to cooperate as fully as possible to keep school spending in line. But, he said, "it's a question of what the townspeople want."

"We've reached the conclusion that the town wants quality education," he said, "and that most of you are here because you don't want to see some item cut."

There's not a lot of fat in the budget he said and then added, "the selectmen can go along with the leadership of Governor King," he said, "but we don't believe that's the way to go."

Committeeman John Eaton said they were trying "to do what you people want and what we think is right. We hope you (the audience) will go along."

The selectmen's letter did say they fully recommended the need for quality education, but they felt a four percent budget was compatible.

The selectmen's statement said:

"The Board of Selectmen in consideration of Governor King's 'tax cap' proposal and the action of the Legislature in support of this proposal has made a special effort to reduce the funds to be raised by taxation to meet the 1980 town general budget. This amount, with the possible exception of such funds as may be appropriated by Town Meeting to accomplish a revaluation of the town, is within the limit of 104% of that raised by taxation in fiscal year 1979.

"We feel compelled to express our deep concern that the School Department, having control over more than 60% of the town budget, has not come up with a figure for that portion lower than 108.2% of last year's tax levy.

"In the opinion of the Board of Selectmen, every effort must be made by

Garden Club Offers Elm Protection Plan

The Andover Garden Club again offers the use of the Elm Injection equipment to residents of the town who wish to save their Elm trees.

The Environmental Protection Agency tests show a 99% survival rate when healthy elm trees are annually treated with Lignasan BLP.

Each year elm trees are lost in Andover due to Dutch Elm disease. So, don't wait until this disease strikes. The survival rate for infected trees is very low. The visual signs of infection are the wilting and yellowing of leaves known as "flagging."

As soon as leaves are developed to one half their full size, the Lignasan BLP can be administered to the healthy tree by low pressure injection directly into the system of the tree at ground level. The length of time to inject a tree can range from 20 minutes to 24 hours, depending upon weather, climate and trunk size. Optimum weather conditions are for a hot, breezy, dry day.

For further details on Dutch Elm disease and loan of the injection equipment, call Mrs. Norman Frost, 475-8400.

Paintings On Exhibit In Wakefield

A series of paintings by Andover artist Bette Wasserboehr will be on display each weekday 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., through April 30, at the American Mutual Insurance Companies in Wakefield.

Mrs. Wasserboehr graduated from the New England School of Art and has studied with Betty Lou Schlemm, A.W.S. and Joseph Santoro, N.A./A.W.S.

Her paintings have been reproduced in the American Mutual's annual art calendar two times.

She is a member of the Academic Artists of America, The Copley Society of Boston, North Shore Art Association, The Bermuda Society of Arts, Concord Art Association, Lynnfield Art Guild, Reading Art Association (Charter and Board member), Andover Art Guild and the York Maine Art Association.

She likes to introduce children and adults into her landscapes, thus combining portraits, landscapes and still life. A good painting, she feels, is a sincere expression of human feeling. To Paint what you know best and love most makes this not a task but an enjoyable challenge. She prefers watercolor medium because of its "spontaneous and fresh fluid feeling."

She has had several one-woman shows and has judged many others and teaches private and group lessons in charcoal, pastel and watercolor. Summer months she is a partner at the Village Gallery, Kennebunkport, Maine.

Mrs. Wasserboehr has received more than 50 awards. Her work is represented in numerous private and corporate collections in the U.S. and abroad.

Montessori Announces Changes

The Andover School of Montessori is pleased to announce some changes in its program for the coming school year. ASM will be relocating from St. Augustine's School in Andover to St. Michael's School in North Andover. St. Michael's School is located on Main Street, near the center of North Andover. Beginning its fifth year in operation, ASM is a non-sectarian, non-profit, parent-run school which offers a three-year traditional Montessori program designed for the child between the ages of two years, nine months and six years. The program integrates self-care activities, sensory development, creative arts, social development, language arts, mathematical concepts and geography and science.

In the Fall, ASM will also expand its program to include three regular sessions, five days a week (two in the morning and one in the afternoon.) Enrollment in each class is open to 22 children who will work with two certified Montessori teachers.

New next year will be an Extended Day Session for five-year-olds. The 12 children who participate in the Extended Session will remain at the school through the lunch hour until 2 p.m. This program gives these older children further opportunity to work with the teachers on individual and small group activities of special interest to this age level.

ASM still has openings in the three regular sessions. Children are accepted regardless of race, creed, sex or national origin. Scholarship aid is also available.

Recognition Service For Lay Minister

Austin E. Anderson, a well known businessman of Andover, will be officially recognized Sunday, April 29, as a "lay minister" at South Church in Andover.

Until this year, Anderson has been proprietor of the Andover Gift House. An early retirement has allowed a 'second vocation.' As a lay minister, Anderson will serve as a volunteer on the staff of South Church as the Parish Caller. His responsibilities will include visiting with those inquiring about the church, visiting the ill and a regular ministry at the Academy Nursing Home.

Dr. Egmont, pastor of the church, explained the concept. "A lay minister is the title of one without formal theological training who undertakes a specific ministry which shares the Good News of Jesus Christ. In Mr. Anderson's case, it confers recognition in the larger church of his local ministry. Lay ministry is vital and this occasion reminds us of a basic New Testament teaching — the priesthood of all believers. All Christians are to be ministers (servants) in some way."

Fondly known as 'Andy,' Anderson is also president of the Andover Historical Society. Presently he serves as chairman of the board of directors of Security National Bank, Lynn and is assistant treasurer of Hanover Concrete and Construction. After graduating from Yale University, he was a Navy officer and then entered retailing in the Boston area. He is the father of Peter of Andover and Bruce of Portsmouth, N.H. Priscilla Anderson, his wife, is also active in the South Church and is currently serving as president of Family Service Association of Greater Lawrence.

Circle Honors 'Secret Pals'

22 Senior Citizen members and friends of the Andover Baptist Church were honored guests of an equal number of Friendly Circle members at the "Secret Pal" banquet, Monday evening in the church vestry.

Each of the "Seniors" had been remembered throughout the year with cards and gifts on special occasions by their "Secret Pal" member of the Friendly Circle, and at Monday's banquet they learned the identity of that "Pal" in a novel way. Each guest received a note containing half the words of a nursery rhyme which they read aloud, and discovered their past year's "Secret Pal" and dinner partner for the evening was the Friendly Circle member who completed the rhyme.

Mrs. Frederick Eastman, president of the Friendly Circle, welcomed the group and expressed appreciation to those who had assisted in the banquet preparations. A special thank you was given to Esther Estell who originated the "Secret Pal" program over eight years ago and has continued to be its working chairman. It has been her labor of love to keep the records of birthdays and anniversaries of senior citizen members of the congregation, send out special notices about the "Pal" program, and plan the annual banquet including the delightfully different ways each year of disclosing the "Pals" identities. Through Mrs. Estell's efforts, the "Secret Pal" program has become one of the most enjoyed of many service projects of the Friendly Circle.

Following Mrs. Eastman's remarks, Dorothy Gordon read a devotional poem and Pator Reginald MacDonald offered the prayer.

During a time of fellowship and hymn singing after the dinner "Happy Birthday" was sung for the April birthdays of Harold Livingston, and Carl Wetterberg. The program was completed by Mrs. Clinton Steven's slide presentation of her trip to Hong Kong, and the evening concluded with everyone joining hands and singing "Blest Be The Tie That Binds Our Hearts In Christian Love."

Officially Adjourned

While five Phillips Academy students played basketball at the other end of the Case Memorial Cage Monday night, Andover officials met up front to adjourn the annual town meeting to May 7. Originally scheduled to begin Monday night, the meeting was moved to May 7 to await action on the Tax Cap legislation, but the move had to be done officially, thus Moderator James D. Doherty, hears Town Counsel Alfred Daniels pronounce that no quorum is present and the meeting is adjourned to May 7, as municipal administrators witness the action.

Administrators, Town Reach Agreement

The school committee signed the long-awaited contract with school administrators Tuesday night, but the vote of approval was not unanimous. Committeemen Casimir Kolaski and Joseph Finn voted "no" to the settlement.

In other personnel action, request to reclassify two central office secretarial positions to a "confidential" category out of their bargaining unit died for lack of a motion.

The administration had asked that the position of personal secretary to the assistant superintendent and to the personnel business manager be reclassified as "confidential secretaries."

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert said both positions entail much confidential work regarding grievances and personnel and the like, and that much flexibility is needed. He said one of the aspects of being in central office is that "it's not an 8 to 4 job."

The superintendent's secretary is the only one that now has "confidential" status.

In other personnel action, the committee approved the retirement of Claire Russo, a third grade teacher at South who has been with the system since September, 1964, and the resignations of Anne Connolly, high school building monitor and Natalie Gilbert, learning disabilities teacher-tutor at Shawsheen.

Maternity leave extensions for 1979-80 were approved for Janis Baron, Loft 6 teacher at Bancroft, Ethel Coltin, Grade 1 teacher at West Elementary, and Susan Whicher, Grade 3 at West, and Ellen Hughes, an English/reading teacher at East Jr. High, was granted a leave for the remainder of the current year; Robert Mirisola, Grade 4 teacher at Doherty, extension of personal leave for the 1979-80 school year, and Janet Scheerer, perceptually handicapped teacher at East Jr. High, a personal leave for 1979-80.

On Honor Roll

Five Andover boys have been named to the honor roll for the third quarter at Austin Prep in Reading. Sophomore Thomas Glynn received first honors, while second honors went to Juniors James Connolly and Joseph Torrisi, Sophomore Peter Iannazzi and Freshman Thomas Rizzo.

Town Budget Within Tax Cap

By Robert E. Finneran
Editor

Cost of Andover's general government in the next fiscal year would be $11,036,710, or 3.5 per cent higher than a year ago and within the four percent tax cap legislation now awaiting Governor King's action.

Town meeting will be asked to OK budget figures prepared by Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark and approved by the selectmen and Finance Committee. Clark gave selectmen the presentation at this week's board meeting.

Still to be considered in the total picture is the school budget which is still under consideration. But, the current estimates indicate that the general government costs would result in a tax increase of about $1.25.

Clark's budget presentation included anticipated revenues from increased user fees in the area of community services, water and sewer use rate hikes. Also considered are items which are outside of the tax cap stipulations such as bond redemption, and increases in contributory pension funds.

The town would exceed the four per cent tax cap if revaluation of the town, as ordered by the courts, is approved and funded from taxation as recommended by Clark. The manager feels such expense should be borne from taxation rather than bonded, since it is not a capital investment. The $200,000 program estimate would put the total budget to be paid from taxation at 5.4 per cent higher than last year.

The figure exempts $538,953 which is outside of the tax cap provisions.

It also anticipates new revenues from such areas as user fees in the community services department estimated at $10,000, fee hikes in the community development department in areas such as building permits, etc., and a water rate increase approved this past year amounting to approximately $120,000.

Clark said that the budget proposal does not defer routine maintenance, nor does it preclude an orderly equipment replacement within the town.

Some changes in personnel assignments and fewer special programs also contributed to the effort to stay within the four per cent guidelines.

The manager said that the management by objective program planned to be introduced in the coming fiscal year would be deferred and concentration would be on successful implementation of computer services and attention to the work of the new departments.

Co-ordination of town agencies was accomplished this past year through creation of the department of community development and planning, department of community services and department of finance and budget.

"There is a certain amount of wisdom in slowing down," Clark said as he noted the need to get the new departments working effectively along with the increased efficiency to be realized through improved data processing services.

A major change in articles to be presented to town meeting will be a request for $1 million to be bonded to clear up the town's major drainage problems. If approved it will allow the town to move ahead on implementation of the master plan for storm drainage rather than the annual expenditure of $100,000 to make corrections.

If voters reject the bond issue, they will be asked to appropriate $100,000 which will also put the town over the tax cap limitation.

While Clark feels that the budget planning will be more difficult next year, based on the continued 104 per cent basis, he notes that groundwork is being established now for the future. A year from now, the town will have a more accurate picture of the impact on increased user fees, and the effect of the data processing equipment in maintaining financial records and forecasts.

He looks upon the tax cap legislation in its present form, containing provisions for a local option override, healthy for the state.

"We didn't get into the problem overnight and it will take some time to resolve some problems, but the provisions allow for growth and local decisions," Clark said.

The provisions give the public time to become more conscious of programs which might be desirable, but which would lead to increased costs, he said.

Clark suggested that those at the local and state level when proposing new programs or services, should be able to show anticipated costs and where revenues could be obtained or assigned to pay for them.

Building Groups Offer Three Options

The School Building Committee will present three options to voters at the annual town meeting dealing with the East Junior High proposal.

Recommended by the committee will be option 1, which calls for construction of a new building at the East Junior High site and demolition of the old building.

The options to be presented according to Kenneth Gropper of the building committee include:

1. Shall the School Committee proceed with the development of construction documents in accordance with the educational specifications for a new East Junior High School to be located on the current parcel, resulting in the demolition of the existing East Junior High building.

2. Shall the School Building Committee proceed with the development of construction documents in accordance with the educational specifications for a new East Junior High School to be located on the South School site with no demolition of the existing East Junior High building.

3. Shall the School Building Committee proceed with the development of construction documents in accordance with the educational specifications for renovation of the existing East Junior High building.

Gropper said the committee was recommending building a new and tearing down old East since it was the most "cost effective way to proceed."

Examination of the costs of renovation vs. building a new structure, lead the committee to decide on the new construction. Also, Gropper said, the state building assistance commission will participate in only the least costly way to meet the educational specifications.

Fire Destroys Home

Checking The Cause

Building Inspector William Meins examines empty can of flammable paint remover outside of 4 Lincoln St. home of Mr. and Mrs. James Delaney which was severely damaged by fire Tuesday night. Vapors from the can, ignited by spark from an electrical circuit, caused the fire.

Chemical paint remover, touched off apparently by a spark from an electrical circuit, resulted in flames completely engulfing a Lincoln street home Tuesday night.

Andover firefighters were called to the 4 Lincoln St. home of Mr. and Mrs. James Delaney at 10:21 p.m. by the fire which swept through the house rapidly causing heavy structural and contents damage, according to Deputy Chief Harold Wright, in charge of crews at the scene.

Fire officials said that flammable paint remover was being used in a sun porch when an electrical spark apparently ignited. All windows on both the first and second floors of the building were open venting the flames through the entire building.

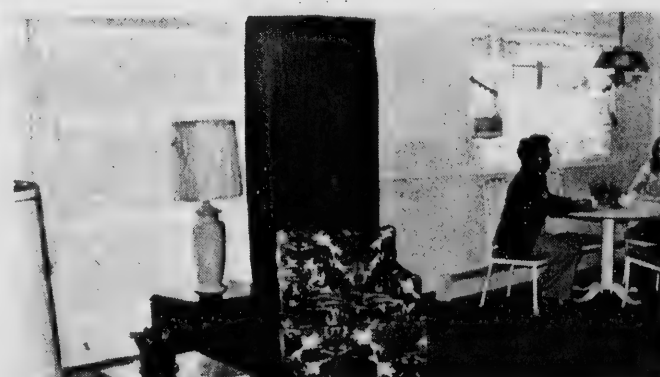

The fire itself was brought under control within a half hour, but crews remained at the scene almost three hours in cleanup operations.

Building Inspector William Meins and Deputy Fire Chief Robert Boush were at the scene inspecting the damage Wednesday morning. Both indicated that it was fortunate the fire did not start later in the night when the occupants were asleep. Meins noted that the people would not have been able to escape the building and probably would have been killed by smoke alone.

The rapidity with which the building was engulfed was attested to by a motorist who, moments after passing the area, viewed the leaping flames through his rear view mirror.

When Selectmen Get Into The Schools

Suddenly some of Andover's board of selectmen apparently are desirous of becoming school committee members.

This week, the board decided to establish a policy urging the school committee, or school department, to follow their lead and bring their budget within a four per cent increase.

We would suggest that the town's bringing of its financial obligations to within the four percent cap as approved by the legislature, is somewhat more easily accomplished, than trying to whittle away at the school costs.

But, the four per cent cap is not the only item which is capturing the eyes of some selectmen.

The school building program and other issues seem to occupy their concern.

In general, this year it would seem that the school department is the favorite target. The pendulum has swung back and education and the town's administration of it again is the object of the annual pin cushion doll.

That the selectmen have decided to get in on the action is something new.

We don't disagree with the thoughts that selectmen can speak out on school department matters, but actually their concerns should be confined to the town's governmental administration and conduct, particularly at a time when there has been a general realignment of the administrative structure.

We are not elevating the school department to a lofty, untouchable position. They are as vulnerable as any other municipal body, and must stand on their own and justify their costs.

This, essentially, is the reason for the budget hearing scheduled for Tuesday night, and also for talks before PTO and other school groups on the implications of budget cuts.

The school department did cut back on their initial budget presentation. What's left are some programs which the public will have to decide whether to cut or not, plus salaries, which constitute the major portion of the town's educational costs.

Andover has always prided itself on its educational system. Many claim the town's school system to be the motivating force behind their move here.

The voters will be given the opportunity to decide if the tax cap is to be overridden at town meeting and we trust the decision will be made wisely by concerned taxpayers.

A few weeks ago, we were somewhat critical of the Finance Committee for overstepping its bounds in clipping some funds from the selectmen's account.

It might be advisable for the same caution to be exercised by those selectmen who would interject themselves into school department business.

If educational concerns and costs be their baliwick, then head for the school committee race. Otherwise, stick to the business of seeing to it that the town's general governmental operations are running smoothly.

A full time town dog officer will be named next Monday by Town Manager Richard J. Bowen, subject to the approval of the board of selectmen.

Bancroft and South schools will close at 12:30 p.m. one day each week in May and June, the school committee decided last week, to give the teachers the planning time for individualizing elementary school instruction to fit individual students in their individual subject areas.

This week's Andover forum speaker is Emma Lewis — internationally known director, choreographer, performer, teacher and sponsor of the lively arts in Boston.

At the annual meeting of the Andover Historical Society, George W. Glennie was elected president.

Big Oil's Meat, Consumer's Poison? Waiting for Oil's Prices to Soar

WASHINGTON — The money-hungry oil companies are getting ready to bite the hand that deregulated them. At political risk, President Carter has asked the American people to accept higher unregulated oil and gas prices to help the nation meet the energy crunch.

The lifting of price restraints on the industry jeopardizes the already badly frayed 7 percent guidelines Carter has set in the Administration's inflation fight. Overall corporate profits are up 26 percent, nearly quadruple the figure the president advocated.

Now, with the lid off for the oil barons, their profits will soar out of orbit with the consumers paying higher prices at the gas pumps and for their heating bills. To mollify the consumers, Carter proposed an excess profit tax on the oil producers with the revenues going into a special federal fund to underwrite alternative energy programs. But even if the measure gets by the oil bloc in Congress — a highly dubious prospect — it would merely reduce the windfall profits by half.

The oil companies aren't satisfied with such a half a loaf. Their public relations machines are cranking out the familiar line that they need the extra billion-dollar profits to pay for drilling and exploration to discover more domestic oil. This is the line they've peddled for years to prevent the government from closing lucrative tax loopholes and to justify higher prices. They proceed on the strange economic premise that they need to reap higher profits to find more oil to be sold at ever-increasing cost to the public.

On close examination, the oil argument doesn't hold water. The extra profits don't always go for exploration and drilling. Mobil, for example, had enough money lying about to buy the Montgomery Ward retail chain for a whopping $1.8 billion. Gulf Oil made a serious bid to buy the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus.

Wheat Proposal: Uncle Sam once symbolized a shrewd Yankee trader. These days, he's being treated like a rube at the county fair by the oil producing nations in the Middle East and South America. The United States is being hornswoggled by such industrial rivals as Japan and West Germany.

Out of a misplaced sense of humanitarianism, this country has been reluctant to play a major card in the high-stakes international poker game. Wheat is as essential a commodity in the world marketplace as is oil. Only six years ago, a barrel of oil and a bushel of wheat cost about the same — roughly $3.

Since then, the cartel of oil sheikdoms has driven the price of a barrel of petroleum to above $14 and in some instances up to $18. The OPEC nations plan to meet again in May to consider even more exorbitant prices.

Meanwhile, the price of wheat has stayed at the $3 level, mainly because the United States believes it is wrong to manipulate the price and profiteer on human hunger.

Overlooked is the fact that the oil producing countries are heavily dependent on the American farmer for vital grain supplies. The Mid-East OPEC nations import two-thirds of their wheat supplies. The United States last year shipped more than 5 million tons of wheat to the oil-rich governments at only a fraction of what they were charging us for oil.

The humanitarian tradition of the United States is a proud one but it seems questionable in the present circumstances. Our wheat prices are so low that several foreign governments buy our $3-a-bushel wheat, then sell it to their own people for as much as $15 a bushel.

For instance, 3 million tons of our wheat went to Japan last year at an average price of $3 a bushel. It reached the consumers there at nearly triple that amount. The Japanese government pocketed the profit in a year when the United States was running a $12 billion trade deficit with Japan.

The Coke Connection: As a good Georgian, Jimmy Carter believes things go better with Coke. He also found that many of the top executives of the Atlanta-based soft-drink corporation were ready contributors to his gubernatorial and presidential campaigns. One of his first housekeeping actions in the White House was to banish Pepsi and install Coca-Cola as the executive thirst quencher.

Influential Administration members such as Attorney General Griffin Bell, Cabinet Secretary Jack Watson and HEW

Secretary Joseph Califano had pre-government ties to the company.

We've now learned of another Carter connection to the pause that refreshes. An Atlanta organization known as Friendship Force arranged exchange visits between Americans and foreign citizens. Coke Chairman J. Paul Austin is in charge of a corporate fund-raising drive for the outfit and a fellow executive is on the group's board of directors.

It now turns out that Friendship Force is one of Rosalynn Carter's pet projects. She serves as its honorary president.

Return to Footpower? With gasoline heading for $1 a gallon, the Postal Service is considering asking its letter carriers to hoof it. Since 1966, the agency has been motorizing its delivery system. But officials now find, to their consternation, that every time gas goes up a penny, it costs the service $3.5 million. If $1-a-gallon gasoline becomes a reality, one source estimates, the mail service will go another $70 million in the red.

Now that 85 percent of the carriers are driving instead of walking, a special task force is considering a proposal to put them back on foot.

The truth is that many letter carriers in the cities would prefer covering their routes on foot. One told us that it takes twice as long to cover an assigned route by motor vehicle than by foot because of traffic snarls and a shortage of parking room.

Warrior Tracksters In Outstanding Performance

The Andover High School Boys Track Team turned in one of the most outstanding performances in the school's history competing in the Haverhill Invitation Meet on Saturday, April 21.

Although not competing as a full team, the Golden Warriors entered first line competitors in only seven events and won all seven in the 14 school meet. Melvin Berger, Paul Farnham, Bob Wilkins and Noel Pizarro led the way each winning an individual event and combining to win the 440 relay in the outstanding time of :44.5. Berger won the 100 impressively in :10.1, Farnham the triple jump in 43'6", Wilkins the high jump at 6'5" and Pizarro the 220 in :23.4. Rip Williams was also impressive winning the 440 in :51.4 and Bob Page won the discus with a toss of 136'8". Also scoring in the meet were Bob Flaherty, third in the 220, Mark DeFranco, third in the triple jump and Rip Jones, fourth in the high jump.

In dual meet competition last week both the Andover Girls and Boys continued their impressive winning streaks. The Girls defeated Tewksbury 82-36 and came back on Saturday with a 90-28 victory over Phillips Academy. Sue Messersmith was the outstanding performer for the Golden Warrior Girls in both meets taking two first against Tewksbury and two firsts and two seconds against the Academy. For Phillips, Katrinka Leshey and Abigail Saltenstall turned in fine performances.

The Andover Boys upped their dual meet record to 3-0, the same as the girls, with a 117-28 win over Tewksbury and a 109-36 victory over Austin Prep. Both teams will compete in the State Relays on Saturday April 28. The Girls will be competing at Billerica and the Boys will be hosting their division at Eugene V. Lovely Field.

Field events for the State Relays will begin at 10 a.m. along with the Four Mile relay. All other running events will begin at 12 noon.

Area fans also reminded of the big Andover Booster's Meet scheduled for Lovely field on Saturday May 5. The Booster's Meet this year will be a combined scoring Boys and Girls Meet.

THE TOWNSMAN, APRIL 26, 1979

By She Livermore

It was a beautiful weekend for any outdoor sport and soccer enthusiasts had a field day, as many teams played Saturday and Sunday to make up the games cancelled last weekend. Brief results of all of the games follow:

Under 19 Division

Andover TeaMen 2 Lawrence Port/Amer. 0

The Andover TeaMen were the victors in their first game of the season against Lawrence Port/Amer. S.C., who at times battled on the field, which eventually resulted in the suspension of two of their players. Andover's goal zone was challenged repeatedly in the first half and goalie Bob Wholley made some brilliant saves for his team. Andover dominated much of the play in the second half and were able to score two goals (David Yates and Tom Keefe on a pass from David Yates) for the win. ESB: Chuck Augello, Tom Keefe, David Yates and Gregg Moss.

Andover Emeralds 9 Salem Earthquakes 0

Andover played very strong against Salem in the first half, during which they were successful in scoring 8 goals. They slowed down a little in the second half but were able to boot in one more goal for a 9-0 victory. Goals scored by: Audette VandenBroeke (one on a pass from Sandy Fitzpatrick), Maureen Sheehy (both on passes from Leslie Perry), Leslie Perry on a pass from Sandy Fitzpatrick, Judy Sherrerd, Betsy Podgorski, Linda Griggs (one on a pass from Sandy Fitzpatrick). ESB: Maureen Sheehy, Linda Griggs, Audette VandenBroeke, Leslie Perry.

Under 16 Division:

Andover Metros 2 Andover Roughnecks 0

The Metros took the lead in the first half when Rick Apgar booted the ball into the Roughnecks' nets. They increased their lead towards the end of the second half when Mike Franz completed a penalty kick. Both teams made some excellent shots on the nets throughout the game but excellent goal tending by Eric Fredette thwarted the Roughnecks many attempts and Brian Butler was outstanding in holding the Metros to their two goal win. ESB: John Lemieux, Gary Forbes, Jason Powell, Dave Fredette (Metros) as well as Brian Butler (Roughnecks).

Andover Tornadoes 12 Swampscott Crusaders 0

Andover dominated throughout the play, although they had 11 players on hand whereas Swampscott had to get along with only nine. The Tornadoes were able to score a total of 12 goals whilst denying Swampscott any good shots on their nets. Goals scored by: Adam Roberts (5) (One on a pass from Barry Bloom, and another from John Fuchs), Barry Bloom (3) (two on passes from Adam Roberts and Paul Thoday), Dan Roberts, Tim Corkery on a pass from Adam Roberts, Daniel Donovan and John Fuchs on a pass from Dan Roberts.

Andover Diamonds 1 Swampscott Blue Bombers 2

Most of the action took place midfield with Andover and Swampscott working hard to control the ball and get it into the goal zones. Swampscott were successful in the first half and again in the second half, giving them a two goal lead. Carol Reed scored for Andover on a direct kick towards the end of the game, but they were still one down at the final whistle. ESB: Carol Reed, Beth Luciano, Karen Duncan.

Under 14 Division

Andover Grizzlies 1 Andover Apollos 3

The Apollos took an early lead with a goal credited to Rob Calder. The Grizzlies tied it up early in the second half when Jim Seltzer booted the ball into the nets. Both teams worked hard to increase their score and the goalies had to stay alert. The Apollos were able to kick in two more (Alvin Ohlenbusch and Andrew Halbach) before the final whistle, giving them the win. ESB: Kurt Oliver, Dave Casanave, Robbie Teichert (Grizzlies) as well as goalie Rob Calder, Andy Halbach, Alvin Ohlenbusch (Apollos).

The country with the greatest length of railroad is the U.S., with 201,696 miles of track.

A Science Club for 5th and 6th graders at the Peabody Museum of Salem will meet for four Tuesday afternoons from 3 p.m. - 4 p.m. on May 1, 8, 15, and 22. Club members will learn to read maps and charts and find their way with compasses. Make your own map or discover the secrets concealed in a pirates's map. Learn how to make a map of a familiar Salem area. In the old cemetery can you find the headstone that is 20 degrees East of Captain Richard Moore's grave and then 30 paces South? The growing sport of Orienteering is based on the skills Science Club members will develop as they explore with compasses and maps.

In an exciting game against Georgetown, the Falcons had to work hard to get the ball into the goal zone as Georgetown kept up the pressure throughout. Both teams scored in the first half (Ted McEnroe on a pass from Barry Tucker) and with a scoreless second half, the game ended in a tie. ESB: Greg Tormey and David Sorrie.

Andover Eagles 3
Saugus Rowdies 4

Saugus took an early lead but Andover booted in three goals (Scott Brink, one on a pass from Dweight O'Hara, and David Bartle on a pass from Sandy MacNeish) to give them the edge. Saugus came back with three and that was the ballgame. ESB: Jim Pelz. ## Y Honors Volunteers

This week, April 22-28, has been designated as National Volunteerism Week. The Andover-North Andover Y.M.C.A. traditionally has had volunteer members serve in all aspects of the program.

Much has been said about the value of the help volunteers provide for the people they serve, also, about the intangible satisfactions gained by volunteers in working with others. Very little has been said about the practical ways in which volunteers themselves benefit.

Leadership training is one of the most important aspects of the Y.M.C.A. During the 1977-1978 program year 574 different volunteers gave 17,998 hours of service to the local Y.M.C.A. volunteers are trained to serve in many capacities. The pool is operated solely by volunteers, including instructors and lifeguards. Gymnastics and other gym programs, craft classes, clerical responsibilities, etc. are all part of the volunteers' service.

The Andover-North Andover Y.M.C.A. is dependent on the strength of its volunteers. The variety of programs could not be offered without the service and dedication of the volunteers. Motivation and bringing out the potential in others are invaluable skills for anyone to learn. The "Member serving Member" concept is considered to be unique throughout the United States. Elaine M. Kent, Executive Director of the local Branch has been invited to give a presentation on volunteerism at the Y.M.C.A. National Council meeting in Atlanta on May 10. This Y.M.C.A. has been selected as one of three in the country to serve as examples for other Y.M.C.A.'s on volunteerism.

Your heart is the most efficient pump in existence for its size, beating approximately 75 times a minute or 40 million times a year. Its function is to pump blood to all organs, supplying food and nourishment to tissues. Likewise, it circulates the blood through the lungs where it gathers oxygen.

In a period of one day, the heart supplies enough energy to lift six tractor-trailers off the ground.

which does not meet minimum yard requirements.

REALTOR

WHAT IS AN APPRAISAL?

True. A REALTOR can suggest a selling price for your home if you intend to list it with his office. This is common practice and part of the value of selling through a REALTOR. But this should not be construed as an official appraisal.

An appraisal is the valuation of your property by a qualified Appraiser for a fee. This fee is based solely on the amount of work involved — not the market value of the property. His detailed written instrument will carry its full weight as documentation if used in any official capacity such as for tax or legal problems.

An Appraiser will provide you with a dated document which will cover in detail all the elements which go into the valuation such as: prices of comparable properties that have sold, value of location, construction, age and depreciation of the property, zoning, restrictions and reproduction cost. If it is income property he will capitalize the present and future income potential. Qualified Real Estate Appraisers will probably be members of the American Institute of Appraisers.

Cruiser Purchase Urged Now

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark has recommended purchasing six new Police cruisers for the town through a cooperative buying arrangement with the City of Newton.

Clark said Newton has contracted for the cruisers and they are in the state. Andover could buy the six cars for $5500 each, Clark said, which beats the price of next year's cars by $900 to $1200 each.

The purchase would be made by a transfer of funds through the finance committee.

Five of the cruisers are earmarked for the police, and the other one for the fire department.

Two more will be purchased at the end of the fiscal year.

teachers, let the children go out whenever they want, have joke and riddle time after lunch or — and this is Mrs. Haslam's favorite — "just keep the school as it is."

Mrs. Haslam came to Doherty six years ago from Chelmsford, where she and her husband Robert still live, and where she had been a classroom teacher and team leader.

She instituted team teaching at Doherty, and the notion of laboratories, primarily math labs, as part of the regular elementary school curriculum. She was instrumental in developing the system-wide program for gifted and talented youngsters, which she still administers, and the developmental primary program, now in its first year and under the Doherty roof. The latter gives near-individual guidance to youngsters who aren't quite ready to go on to first grade.

She is now working with other administrators on a peer evaluation handbook for principals, and just returned from trips to Washington, D. C., on that project.

In 1976, she was named Andover's first "Educator of the Year."

Mrs. Haslam has been in the "teaching business" since 1953, "give or take a couple of kids." Her own youngsters are now 20 and 24.

A native of the South Shore, Mrs. Haslam holds a bachelor's degree in elementary education from Bridgewater State College, and a master's in guidance and counseling from Northeastern, and she's done graduate work at Michigan State University, the University of Lowell, Fitchburg State and Harvard. She is a frequent speaker and author of a number of articles on her special areas of expertise.

She's also a staunch supporter of Andover schools.

"There's not another system that offers the kinds of quality education that are available here," she says. "The opportunities are unsurpassed. I don't think people realize it."

As for the sheer idolatry of Tuesday, she notes that the younger pupils think of the principal as a pal, sort of a co-conspirator against their teachers.

"But," she smiles, "that all changes around fourth grade."

SPRINGTIME At Towne Deli

'Tis Spring . . . 'tis Spring, the bird is on the wing and the grand New England Springtime has permeated Towne Deli.

In our light and airy indoors, the screened windows are wide open and the fresh, hanging plants create a cool greenhouse atmosphere that makes even Towne Deli food taste better!

Outdoors, the tables are on our terrace so that you may grab a few rays as you munch on a sandwich, have lunch or just sip a cup of coffee.

What better place to meet friends (there are always a few of yours on hand) or to enjoy solitude in serene surroundings?

None! This becomes obviously so as we observe unhurried and unhassled patrons reading their newspaper or a group of executives with their control sheets holding a "board meeting". Great! We love it, and so will you.

Towne Deli. That's where good food and good friends get together to make a combination rare these days.

was constructed during fiscal 1978. The 25,000 square foot ambulatory care center is at the intersection of Route 93 and 62 in Wilmington. A satellite of Choate Hospital, the Regional Health Center features a 24 hour walk in Urgent Care Unit, Lab, X-ray, Physical Therapy, and Service Community Health Center. The Physical Therapy Unit is open to the public and the Ambulatory Care Unit will be open to the public by appointment.

REPORT OF THE CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

On October 24, 1978, I completed my term as Chairman of the Board of Trustees. It has been my distinct pleasure to serve in this capacity for the past three years. The years have been most enjoyable and rewarding. I continue to be amazed at the ability of Choate Hospital to constantly improve its health care services to the City of Woburn and surrounding communities. It is testimony to the excellence of the Choate professionals, the outstanding medical staff and the many volunteers who play such an important role in its programs.

One of the larger volunteer contributions is made by the thirty-five men and women who make up our Board of Trustees. The many hours of service and their advice on direction and policy for the Hospital are invaluable. Only with this assistance has Choate been able to take its place among the best community hospitals in Massachusetts and throughout the nation. I would urge you to note their names which appear on another portion of this Annual Report.

The Regional Health Center in Wilmington, like myself, is completing a three year association with Choate. It was October 1975 that Choate agreed to assume the responsibility for construction and operation of the Center. I am delighted to report that the facility was dedicated on October 22, 1978 and opened for business the next day. Early reports signify great things for Wilmington and its neighbors in the improvement of health care delivery. I personally want to thank Ms. Constance D. Sprauer, Vice President of Choate, and George M. Hazel, M.D., who made it happen.

Winchester Hospital and Symmes Hospital in Arlington have voted through their Trustees to consolidate with Choate. These votes were quite strong in favor and several Committees have been formed to examine areas of consolidation such as organization, finances, site of new facility, etc. While this effort moves slowly, it moves forward and gives every indication that it will soon be a reality and a giant step toward providing the very best of health care to all of us who live within this area.

There were many additional noteworthy events during the past year. The granting of another full accreditation to the hospital, the purchase of the Jonsson property adjacent to the hospital, and the naming of our mental health center in honor of Dr. Thomas Caulfield, a Woburn native and pioneer in the field of psychiatry, were just some of the actions taken which made the past year outstanding.

While it is difficult to single out the one aspect of Choate which makes it an outstanding hospital, close association during my term as Chairman would make me believe that it has to be the marvelous spirit which exists within the walls of this institution. I am convinced that this spirit makes Choate different and the fine hospital that it is.

Certainly the leadership of Paul Downey, its President, and his associates Neil Stroman, Ed Medeiros, Kathy Melendy and Connie Sprauer produce an environment for the spirit to exist. The excellent cooperation and creative talents of John Brennan, Fran Lipson, Dick Canniff, Helen Otis, Peter Nagle, Madeline St. Amand, Joe Chapley, Jeannette West and all of the other Department Heads in the action areas of the Choate each day, add greatly to this spirit. Put these together with such a dedicated and talented nursing and medical staff and the combination produces that spirit you feel inside after you have spent a little time at Choate. I leave as Chairman knowing that I not only felt that spirit but was a part of it.

Finally a special thanks to the Hospital Aid Association for its support during my term and for the wonderful job it does for Choate; my fellow officers, Everett Mawn, Tom Mawn, Walt Geisenhainer, Jim Young and Bob Kean; the Executive Committee and Marion Wright, Administrative Secretary.

The Choate Hospital is a marvelous service to have in our midst. I urge you to continue its support. I plan to.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

PRESIDENT His Annual Report covers the hospital's fiscal year from October 1, 1977 to September 30, 1978, a year marked by challenge and forward progress.

The soaring cost of health care in this country has received considerable media coverage in the past few years, and hospitals have responded in a variety of ways to contain costs while at the same time maintaining the quality of care. Pressure from government, third party payors and others has focused attention on ambulatory care as a preferred alternative to expensive inpatient hospital care, and programs have been developed or improved at Choate and other hospitals to provide such services. However, while accomplishing one goal - less expensive ambulatory care - the effect of these programs is to reduce inpatient volume which poses a different set of problems for the hospital. Last year, for example, our one day surgical volume climbed by more than 18% over the previous year, from 877 to 1,035 patients, representing a saving to each patient of one or two days stay in the hospital. On the other hand, the reduced days represent a decline in both volume and revenue to the hospital. Obviously a balance between inpatient and ambulatory services does exist, and the real challenge is to plan properly and effectively to provide appropriate services to our patients while maintaining a strong and viable hospital organization.

We anticipate that some erosion of our patient base will occur with the opening of the Lahey Clinic hospital in neighboring Burlington in two years time, yet expect that the presence of our Regional Health Center in Wilmington will offset that erosion by attracting new patients to Choate Hospital from Wilmington and surrounding Communities.

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the satellite facility in Wilmington were held on September 8, 1977 with construction continuing throughout the fiscal year toward an opening date of October 23, 1978.

The health center represents an innovation in health care because it brings together under one roof the different elements of health care and integrates them through a common medical record and team approach to treat illness, while at the same time emphasizing community health education and preventive care. The facility contains a 24 hour walk-in urgent care area, diagnostic laboratory and x-ray services, physical therapy, central medical records, administrative offices, a large multi-purpose room, and rental space for community health agencies. There are also 16 doctors' offices and related examination and support space. The doctors' offices will be occupied by full-time primary care physicians (pediatricians and internists) and a mix of specialists and sub-specialists available by appointment.

The center is not strictly an extension of a hospital outpatient department, nor is it a medical office building. It embraces the best elements of both, and puts them together into a coordinated program that is uniquely suited to the needs of people who live and work in the Wilmington area. The Regional Health Center is a prototype for improving the performance of our health care system while containing health care costs, and we look to it as a major provider of ambulatory services in an area plagued by a chronic shortage of health services and physicians for many years.

In October of 1977, a major consulting firm retained by Choate, Symmes and Winchester Hospitals presented its final report to the three hospitals and recommended that the hospitals consolidate. The concept of consolidation is not new, yet the process and implementation of such a concept is difficult and time-consuming, and often frustrating. Nevertheless, during 1978 representatives of Choate, Symmes, and Winchester Hospitals met on numerous occasions and were successful in moving the project along. All three hospitals have voted in principle to consolidate and are now working hard to develop the necessary information on which specific decisions can be reached. It appears at this time that we are moving in the right direction and can look forward to continued progress in the coming year.

Choate Memorial Hospital is a dynamic organization which is fortunate to have many talented and dedicated individuals working in its behalf. To those many trustees, medical staff members, employees, and community members who gave unselfishly of their time and effort throughout the year, I offer my sincere thanks and appreciation.

Daniel Tassel
Medical Staff President

REPORT OF THE MEDICAL STAFF PRESIDENT

Last year it was my pleasure to comment on the unique composition and character of our Medical Staff which has assured a very special quality of care for the Choate Hospital medical community. On this occasion I would like to confirm that uniqueness and report on some of the activities of the Medical Staff.

NEW PHYSICIANS: We were again fortunate this year on attracting a number of fine well-trained physicians to our Medical Staff. Each of these doctors has brought to the Choate Hospital an expertise which has been most welcome and which widens the scope of care available in our local community. Dr. Antonia Bayog has joined our staff in Internal Medicine after having spent several years as an attending physician at Beth Israel Hospital in Brookline and serving as an instructor in Medicine at Harvard. Dr. Anthony Baumstark recently came to us as a member of the Radiology Department from the Strong Memorial Hospital in Rochester, New York, where he served as an Assistant Professor in Radiology. The Department of Internal Medicine has been strengthened further by two physicians with strong backgrounds in cardiovascular disease. Dr. Kenneth Tucker's credentials reveal a wide range of experience, including two years as a clinical cardiology fellow at the New England Center Hospital in Boston. Dr. Glen Kershaw, prior to his move to Burlington and the Choate Hospital, completed two years of specialty training in the study and treatment of hypertension at Boston University Medical School. By way of the Regional Health Center in Wilmington we have in Dr. John Sullivan the distinction of a physician trained in both Medicine and Pediatrics. He is assisted by Dr. Thomas Workman who completed his training in Internal Medicine at the Tufts-associated Faulkner Hospital. Our Emergency Room has been fortunate in having Dr. Leonard Alberts on a full time basis. Dr. Alberts received extensive surgical training at the Tufts New England Medical Center where he also served as a clinical instructor in surgery.

EDUCATION: Our Educational Program, which has for a number of years been associated with Tufts Medical School, has been approved for physician training credit by the Massachusetts Medical Society. This year under the chairmanship of Dr. Arthur Veno our staff has added a Cancer Committee whose responsibilities include a tumor registry, a weekly tumor clinic, and a regular tumor conference. Regular meetings combine a multi-disciplinary approach with Choate-based physicians and outside consultants to discuss specific Choate cases. As a result, many of our patients are able to receive a comprehensive evaluation and total care locally without the inconvenience of traveling to outside medical centers.

CONSOLIDATION: Meetings with members of the Winchester and Symmes Hospitals' Medical Staffs have been held regarding hospital consolidation. The sharing of educational opportunities, diagnostic facilities, and consultation services has been a longstanding policy. Preliminary discussions pertaining to staff organization have been proposed and are being studied. The Choate Hospital Medical Staff has been strongly in favor of consolidation as a means of providing its patients with the best of medical care for the foreseeable future.

NEW TRENDS: We have all seen the hospital assuming a role in the delivery of medical care which only the most farsighted of us would have considered a few short years ago. For some patients the "Emergency Room", nurtured by the payment policies of Blue Cross-Blue Shield, has become the no appointment outpatient department, the focus of primary care. With the new Regional Health Center in Wilmington the changing roles of the hospital and the doctor have become more evident. Our new Medical Staff President, Dr. George Hazel, is also the Medical Director for the Regional Health Center in Wilmington and as such has been a major asset to the Choate and the people of Wilmington. It is paradoxical that as the hospital has expanded its scope of activity into primary care, physicians have at times found themselves in the position of providing services which one would ordinarily have considered to be under the direction of the hospital. For instance our special brain x-rays (computerized axial tomography or CAT scan) have been done by a local, physician-run laboratory. Twenty four hour heart monitoring (cardiac event recording) is done locally through the offices of local physicians. These are but two obvious examples. There are bound to be other areas in which the roles of the hospital and the doctor are intertwined or changed. In each event the medical community appears to be the benefactor.

UTILIZATION REVIEW: Members of our Medical Staff have been serving regularly in peer review on both the local level here at the Choate Hospital and at the state level under the Bay State Health Care Foundation. Most of our staff members have openly supported the Bay State Health Care Foundation which is at present launching a new Health Maintenance Organization which will provide comprehensive office, outpatient, and hospital coverage at considerable saving to the patient community.

Despite the changing avenues, balances, and roles of medical care, the Choate Hospital medical community can be assured that the Choate Hospital physicians, by virtue of training, continuing education, and concern will continue to provide that special medical care of which we are all proud.

REPORT OF THE HOSPITAL AID ASSOCIATION

s President of the Hospital Aid

Association, I would like to express my thanks to all those associated with the Hospital-the trustees, staff, personnel and especially the members of the Hospital Aid Association.

A special word of thanks goes to Mrs. Myra Murray, manager of our Coffee Shop and Mrs. Wilma Minot, our night manager. Without the faithful and hard work of these ladies our Coffee Shop would not be such a success. Our appreciation goes to all the Volunteers and Volunteens. Many thanks goes to Mrs. Jeannette West our Director of Volunteers and Volunteens in supervising their schedules.

As I start my second year as President, I am thankful for the confidence and support given me by the members of the Hospital Aid Association.

A "Fashion Show" was held in the Spring. Our "Geranium Day" was held on the Hospital grounds for the first time and it proved to be a very pleasant and successful venture. Our Annual Fall Dinner Dance was a success both socially and financially as was our Christmas Fair.

Our second payment of $3,000 on our pledge to the Regional Health Center was made. Two hundred dollars was given to the High School Scholarship Fund to be awarded to a graduate who is a candidate for a Nursing School. From our "Penny Fund" we purchased toys for Pediatrics, also a coffee maker for the Oncology Clinic.

Our thanks to Mr. Paul Downey, President of the Choate and his staff, and the Woburn Daily Times for its publicity.
